Service Description

"Provides industry - school - community forums, industry taster programs and customised training and work placement, with access to a wide range of trades. Employability skills and careers identification program with work experience and apprenticeship/traineeship employment prospects at completion
Our work with young people began with the efforts of Father Gerard Tucker, the Brotherhood's founder, who worked to find accommodation for unemployed young men in the 1930s, so they could gain work and build better lives. We continue to work for an Australia where all young people can stay engaged in learning, achieve their educational goals, find meaningful employment and live a fulfilling life, whether they're from a refugee family, from a household struggling with poverty, or facing other difficulties."All information was obtained from
